WASHINGTON, LINCOLN, M'KINLEY BIRTHDAYS CELEBRATED BY N. P. BANKS POST

N. P. Banks Post and Corps celebrated the birthdays of Washington, Lincoln and McKinley, Feb. 20, 2:30 p. m., in their hall on Glendale avenue, and, although the numbers in attendance were not what were ardently hoped for, the meeting was a glorious, patriotic one, and the talks were redolent with heart-burning truths in regard to the lives of these noble patriots; talks that had force to quicken the pulses of the young, and cause them to wish to emulate, in some degree, the lessons taught by their lives.

Comrade Gibbons spoke eloquently on George Washington, his life, duties and aid given to our nation, when it was striving for an independence, which through his wisdom and foresight was attained, and which with the assistance of many noble men who came after him have preserved that independence for more than a century and a quarter.

Rev. J. H. Henry gave a pleasing address on the life of Lincoln—the man, whose life as a boy, a man, a martyr, has given to men, women and children of America the noblest example of holiness since our Saviour walked the earth. Comrade Parker of Glendale also paid a tribute to the character of Lincoln, who won the love and admiration of the whole world.

Rev. Thompson, who was a friend and associate of William B. McKinley, spoke words of eulogy of this other patriot and martyr to the cause of freedom and loyalty; spoke in words of personal knowledge, of the noble life work done by McKinley and of his death that saddened the hearts, not only of our nation, but of the entire world, for such men sweeten life on this mundane sphere, and leave the bread of greed and avarice.

Rev. D. D. Cheney and others paid eloquent tribute to McKinley, and all together made the meeting very interesting and instructive.

TROPICO BALL TEAM LOSE TO WHITE SOCKS SUNDAY, 7 TO 3

Last Sunday, the Tropico Base Ball nine crossed bats with the Los Angeles (colored) White Socks who won to the score of 7 to 3, caused by the unfortunate miss of Bidwell, when he misjudged a fly ball with the bases full. Peoples was in excellent form and pitched a good game. Batteries were: Tropico, Peoples and Bradford; Socks, Woods and Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Newton Russell, Jr., of Los Angeles, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Millard Turck, of North Glendale Ave.

MUSICAL PROGRAM AT REGULAR MEETING OF THURSDAY AFTER-NOON CLUB

Mrs. Carrie Stone Freeman, chairman of the department of music of the Los Angeles district, presented the program at the regular meeting of the Tropico Thursday Club. Mrs. Freeman is not only a noted vocalist, but a composer of beautiful melodies. As a happy finale to the delightfully charming vocal numbers rendered by Mrs. Freeman, at the urgent request of the club, she gave one of her own compositions, "Twilight." Miss Martin, of Los Angeles, accompanied Mrs. Freeman, and proved herself an accomplished pianist. Miss Martin also gave several piano solos. The program was of interest and was a classical entertainment, and all were loathe to bid Mrs. Freeman and Miss Martin goodbye at the conclusion, for not only the program but the charming personality of these two artists appealed to the appreciative audience.

Mrs. Edwin Virden gave a paper in detail of the splendid work done by the Juvenile Protective league of Los Angeles. Miss Hickman gave a brief report of the Reciprocity program given by the Glendale Tuesday Afternoon club, emphasizing the hospitality of the sister city.

Hostesses for this delightful meeting of Thursday were Mrs. O. Earl Clements, Mrs. E. K. Barnes, Mrs. D. H. Smith and Mrs. Claud O. Pulliam.

DELIGHTFUL TIME HAD AT KELLER SCHOOL OF DANCING SATURDAY EVENING

The spirit of merriment and music hovered over the delightful affair given on Saturday evening in the Keller School of Dancing, when Mrs. Jack Boettner, of 1228 West 9th street, and Miss Lillian Armstrong, of Hotel Glencoe, Los Angeles, entertained about sixty of their friends at dancing. The flowering acacia used in profusion adorned the spacious room where the dancers tripped the light fantasies; the dining room decorations were effectively carried out in red, which predominated; the shaded candles and crisp tulle of the same shade gave an individual touch of beauty to the table from which a bountiful buffet supper was served. Chinese lanterns lighted the grounds and attractive pergola, where the inviting punch table stood.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Van Hazelen entertained as their guests at their home on West Park avenue last Thursday, Mrs. L. Ton, of Chicago, Ill., Miss Maggie Vernand, of Three Oaks, Michigan; Mrs. J. Vernand and Mrs. D. H. Gerritson, of Los Angeles.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION AT TROPICO M. E. CHURCH WAS LARGELY ATTENDED

Both sessions of the Sunday school convention, held at Tropico, in the First M. E. church, Friday, Feb. 18, were largely attended and much benefit was experienced by those in attendance. The devotional exercises were led by the Rev. Don S. Ford.

The Rev. Paul Stephens, of Orange county, gave an excellent talk on "Evangelism." He said that the material the Sunday school handled was mouldable. The work of moulding it must be done today; tomorrow would be too late. Mouldings a boy or girl in Christ was the work of the school as much as bringing the boys and girls to Christ. It is easier to save than to reclaim. A boy converted at ten is of more value than ten men converted at 50. Three-fourths of the church membership comes from the Sunday school. The speaker added that there were three important things in Evangelism: An evangelistic pastor, saved teachers and decision day.

Mrs. Henry A. Dowling gave a most profitable talk on "Secondary Work." She said that the secondary work embraced the "teen" age. One-third of the population of the United States consists of boys and girls from 13 to 20 years of age. In this department class and department organization is one of the best means of holding boys and girls of that age in the Sunday school. What is needed is not an aimless organization, but organization that tends to a definite end—the building up of Christians who will work for the Cause in a willing spirit. The speaker advocated separate opening exercises for older and younger classes. He also advised that different classes be intrusted from time to time with the opening exercises. This has been found helpful.

GOOD THINGS PROMISED AT MEETING OF P. T. A. FRIDAY, FEB. 25

Mrs. Eustace Benton Moore, president of the Tropico Parent-Teacher association, with Mrs. Dwight Griswold, chairman of the refreshment committee, and Mrs. John H. Seaman, chairman of the program committee, is arranging for the dinner and program to be given at the Cerritos school building Friday evening, Feb. 25. The dinner will be served in the Domestic Science department, while the splendid program as being arranged by Mrs. Seaman will be presented in the auditorium of the school. The main part of the program will be a talk by Mrs. (Councilwoman) Lindsey.

Mesdames Hammond, Saunders, Hibbert, Ogier, Milligan, Meyers and Dutton will have charge of the dinner to be served next Friday at the G. A. R. Hall when the N. P. Banks Post and Corps meet in all-day session.

Miss M. Ogren, of Chicago, was a guest at the home of Mrs. Wm. Harvey, Jr., last week.

TROPICO BAND GREATLY APPRECIATED AT ENTERTAINMENT OF K. P. S. FRIDAY EVE

Last Friday evening the Knights of Pythias of Visar lodge were entertained in royal style at the hall when the losers of the red, blue and yellow contest banqueted the winners.

The entertainment was the first on the evening's entertainment and those who attended were given a treat in the form of being the first to hear a regular concert by the Tropico Concert Band. The band concert was a surprise to everyone due to the fact that while it has been generally known that Tropico had a band in the embryo few knew that the boys were in any condition to offer any music to the public as yet. Last Friday disproved this thought and the applause given the boys was one of appreciation.

The band is now under the direct supervision of J. J. Burke, who is a professional director who knows how to handle a band and get results. The coming summer will prove to the people of Tropico that a band will be a booster and every citizen should make it a point to see that they do their share towards the support.

After the program those assembled repaired to the banquet room where a spread had been prepared by the committee and the way in which all hands took hold proved that the efforts were appreciated. At a late hour the party broke up with a feeling that the evening had been well spent.

BIG BROTHERS ENTERTAINMENT FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN IS POSTPONED TO FEB. 26

On account of February 22nd, Washington's birthday, not being a holiday and the school children unable to attend on that account, the Big Brother committee has changed the date to Saturday, February 26, beginning promptly at 9:30 a. m., at the Palace Grand theatre. This entertainment is for the children of Glendale, Tropico, Burbank, Eagle Rock, San Fernando and Fillmore. The program presented, to consist of five patriotic reels. After the "movie" show, refreshments will be served in the Elks' club rooms by the Big Brothers.

Big Brother committee, W. E. Heald, H. M. Miller, I. H. Russell and W. E. Evans.

A. E. Bradshaw has purchased the meat market department in the B. B. Grocery and took charge last Monday morning. Mr. Bradshaw comes to Tropico well recommended, having been in the market business at 7th and Julian streets, Los Angeles, for the past eleven years.

DELIGHTFUL EVENING IS ENJOYED AT HOME OF MR. AND MRS. KIMBERLY FRIDAY

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wallace Kimberly, corner of Cerritos and San Fernando boulevard, was the scene of a brilliant assemblage of friends from Los Angeles, Glendale and Tropico, who enjoyed a delightful evening at U. S. 500 Friday evening. The home was decorated in many beautiful American flags. Old Glory was festooned over the archways the various rooms given over to the evening's entertainment and caught up in the draperies. Tall roses and low-cut bowls, each filled with ferns and red roses and red carnations, added a charm to the happy occasion.

No less than twenty-eight of the prominent military and naval forts of the United States were represented, as each table was a miniature fort.

Tiny American flags, above which was fastened the name of the fort, also the number of the table, fluttered from the respective forts covered with the national colors. The pretty score cards, the handiwork of Sir Francis Booth, emphasized the fact that a real battle, of cards, for the pretty prizes would be the order of the evening. When the final "charge" was made and the last fort "capitulated," and there was an accounting of the various naval and military heroes, it was discovered that Mrs. George E. Hallack, of Los Angeles, had won first prize, and Mrs. W. H. Royal, also of Los Angeles, second, while Mrs. Edward Carvel, of Glendale captured the consolation. The brave "defenders" among the gentlemen and who captured the prizes were J. H. Bingham, of Los Angeles, first; M. K. Fleming, of Glendale, second, and B. Badger, of Los Angeles, the consolation. In the drawing contest Mrs. Anna Orington, of Los Angeles, secured a handsome bronze medallion of Longfellow.

Dainty refreshments were served at the gaily decorated tables or forts concluded the charming evening's entertainment. Mrs. Kimberly was assisted by Mrs. Charles A. Barker, Mrs. Charles H. Phillips, Miss Cora Hickman, Mrs. O. Earl Clements, Mrs. Dwight Griswold, and Mrs. Henry F. Goodwin.

Edward H. Weston, of the Weston Studio, famous throughout the country, signed an agreement last week to appear before the July meeting of the Photographers' association of America at Cleveland, Ohio, where he will demonstrate his methods of photography.

MEYER SECURES AGENCY FOR CHALMERS SIX-30

The Glendale and Tropico agency for the new famous "Chalmers" 3400 RPM. Light Six has just been established with A. Meyer, the well-known local Overland agent. Before assuming the agency for this car, Mr. Meyer went into the matter very thoroughly, and had the car demonstrated to him in some very hard and severe tests, and was greatly surprised and pleased at the wonderful power, flexibility, an easy riding qualities which this car possess. Its wonderful getaway, and acceleration are some of the points which impressed Mr. Meyer favorably, as it was demonstrated to him that from two or three miles an hour it would "pick up" to fifty in a remarkably quick period. Its flexibility was shown by a demonstration in leaving Glendale, traveling through Los Angeles traffic district, over hills that many cars could not negotiate without changing gears, and throughout the entire trip the car was left in "high," and the car is absolutely free from vibration, whether traveling at two miles an hour or sixty.

After driving the car and seeing how easily it was handled and proving to himself that the car was without any doubt the very best value on the market today at any price, Mr. Meyer decided that the car would without doubt meet the buying public's approval and took the agency for it, and now has a demonstrator which he will be very glad to show and demonstrate to anyone so desiring.

The Care of Foodstuffs.

As soon as meat or fish arrives from the market it should be examined in the folds and crevices to make sure there are no eggs left by intruding flies. A wire safe in the cellar is the best place to hang meat. In mutton or in lamb the marrow or soft, fatty substance should be taken from the backbone, as also the thin membrane which appears under steaks and chops, as these decay quickly and, therefore, are liable to taint the whole piece. Never leave meat in paper, but put at once on a clean plate if it is not hung. Fish should not be laid directly on artificial ice, as the ammonia used is apt to combine with the fish and cause ptomaine poisoning. Do not cover meat or fish tightly before being cooked and never cover cooked food such as soups, meats and vegetables while still hot. Let them cool as rapidly as possible, then cover. Bacon and hams may be kept in any cool place where there is plenty of cold air in circulation about them to prevent mildew. They are best hung, protected by bags of cloth or paper.

Fruits should be kept in a cool, dark place and separated as much as possible. Berries should be poured on large plates or platters and spread out. If the watermelon is too large for the ice chest cover with a wet piece of sack and place where the wind will blow over it. The evaporation will make it delightfully cold. Lemons are best kept by wrapping in tissue paper and hanging in an openwork bag in a cool place. A bag made of netted white string is admirable for this purpose and can be washed when necessary.

The Southern Pacific and the Santa Fe companies have arranged for a rate of 62½ cents per 100 pounds on canned milk from California points to Eastern and intermediate points.

One Mark Twain Told.

When Mr. Choate was appointed ambassador to England Mark Twain issued a volume about him, which England was threatened with until Mr. Choate, in dire alarm, begged the publishers to refrain. A few samples of the jokes may explain Mr. Choate's anxiety to keep the reading public of England away from the brilliant production of Mr. Clemens. How is this one, for instance?

Mr. Choate went into a restaurant and asked what they had for dinner. "Everything," roared the waiter. "Bring it in," said Mr. Choate. "One order of hash!" yelled the waiter, and Mr. Choate fainted.—Denver Post.

When Doctors Disagree.

"I am seventy today," said Mr. Silvergray, "but still hale and hearty and naturally desirous of living as long as I can. If there were any known, definite way by which life could be greatly extended I think I should have the grit or the common sense, or both, to follow that course."

"But as far as my knowledge goes there is no such absolutely definite course to follow. The people who live to be very old, say 95, 100, 105 and around those figures, appear to have led all sorts of lives."—New York Sun.

Not Natural.

"Why wouldn't you let the artist paint your wife with a basket of fruit in her hand?"

"Wouldn't have been natural with any still life about it."—Baltimore American.
